

Are you a person with a disability who is...

- Facing financial hardship?
- At risk of becoming homeless?
- Being served with an eviction notice?
- Currently renting your home/apartment?

If you answered YES to ALL of the above questions, you may be qualified for financial assistance through the Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP) administered through the Lehigh Valley Center for Independent Living.

If you qualify, assistance may include rental assistance, security and utility deposits, utility payments, and moving cost assistance. To apply you must show proof of income and assets, and be in immediate danger of becoming homeless due to financial hardship.

For more information and to start the application process, please call the Lehigh Valley Center for Independent Living at 610-770-9781. Ask to speak with a Community Support Coordinator about the HPRP program.
